

Spa

The spa building at Terma Linca houses a well equipped gym, sauna and steam among other facilities such as yoga, aerobics room and meditation room.

The salient feature of the spa at Terma Linca is undoubtedly its hot stone bath with separate facilities for man and women. The spacious sunk-in wooden pools with the high-vaulted ceiling accompanied by the sizzling sound of hot river stones can easily transport the bather into an indulgent world of bathing luxury!

The Terma Linca banquet hall equipped with the latest technology is the best choice for conferences, business meetings and workshops and can easily accommodate up to 200 people.

Introduction

Nestled in a private oasis of panoramic tranquility lies an elegant stretch of Bhutanese architectural gems strung together to embody the spirit of Terma Linca. Flanked by lush paddy fields and snow-fed waters of Wangchhu River, Terma Linca enjoys an unparalleled bucolic setting strategically situated merely five kilometers away from the urban expanse of Thimphu town.

Accomodation

Terma Linca's 30 rooms cocooned in this resort overlook the river that is magnificently framed by wall to wall windows and each room echoes silent serenity and stillness that has already been recognized as the hallmark of this iconic gateway.

The artfull union of traditional architecture and modern interior completes the experience for the discerning traveler who is sure to be pampered by professionally trained Bhutanese staff.

Restaurant and Bar

Our multi cuisine restaurant fans out over the wangchhu and the adjacent mountainside, making your experience a natural treat any time of the day.

The bar and lounge below enjoy the same exhilarating view. A great place to relax and unwind over refreshing cocktails and drinks from a well stocked bar.
